

<https://vivikon.com/job/senior-bi-tableau-developer/>

Senior BI/Tableau Developer

Description

- 5+ years of Business Objects (BO) Development and Reporting experience or experience developing, implementing, and maintaining complex Tableau or MS Power BI dashboards, visualizations, and analytics
- 5+ years of SQL development including 4+ years SQL and Performance Tuning
- 2+ years of Data Warehouse project experience
- 1+ years of leading complex business intelligence solutions in the same role

Responsibilities

- Designing, develop, implement, and maintain Business Intelligence/Business Objects reports
- Developing and administrating the Business Intelligence/Business Objects development and production Business Objects and SQL Server servers
- Leading complex business intelligence solution and supporting data strategy leveraging acquired subject matter expertise to identify/inform opportunities/risks
- Performing SQL script execution, maintaining, and building new and/or modifying existing programs to meet system and design specifications
- Designing, developing, and implementing complex SQL queries used to create data marts
- Managing backups of all Business Intelligence/Business Objects Windows servers
- Creating Metadata Business Intelligence/Business Objects Universes
- Designing and developing database systems to efficiently store and report data
- Participating in project discussions to document and recommend alternative technical solutions or requirements
- Participating in unit, integration, and system testing
- Meeting with the customer on a regular basis to communicate project status
- Maintaining effective communication and relationships with all persons involved with the project
- Providing technical assistance, training, and mentoring to others

Qualifications

Master's Degree/Bachelor's Degree

Contacts

hr@vivikon.com

Hiring organization

VIVIKON

Employment Type

Full-time

Industry

Software

Job Location

United States

Date posted

November 1, 2022